

Declaration of Legality

From the Supplier of All Material

Definitions

Supplier:

refers to the supplier of all material supplied to Osswald GmbH & Co. For the purpose of replication onto CD media.

In this Case:

Company:

Contact Person:

Address:

Tel. No.:

The company:

refers to Osswald GmbH & Co.

Material:

content of all information in any form.

Order:

work commissioned to the company by the supplier

The supplier exempts the company from responsibility for the content of all material. The supplier ensures that he owns all legal rights and has written permission to produce, copy and transfer all material contained within this and any future orders supplied to the company. The above-mentioned supplier furthermore herein declares, that he has obtained all necessary legal rights from the GEMA and obliges himself to inform the company in writing, should any loss of these rights occur in the future.

The supplier hereby exempts the company explicitly from any obligation to inform the GEMA or to pay any licenses, fees or charges on their or any Third Parties' behalf. The supplier also declares the company free and not responsible for any infringement of copyright by any of the two or any third party. Furthermore, the company will not be called upon to pay for any law costs emanating from any case arising the replication or duplication of the material.

The Supplier herewith confirms unequivocally, that the material, including the production, copying or transferring of the material does not break any law. The supplier also confirms, that the material does not glorify violence, does not contain any sexual abuse of children or bestiality, and does not show any extreme racism.

The General Trading Terms and Conditions of the company, which we have studied and agree to, apply to this and all future orders.

---

Place, Date

---

Signature